Saperavi Tbilvino, Saperavi, 2015, Khaketi, Georgia, 13% A true Eastern delight. This Georgian wine is crafted by Tbilvino, which originated as a wine factory for the USSR but has started to focus on quality rather than quantity since the fall of the Iron Curtain. With flavours of vanilla and ripe red cherries, it's a big, interesting wine and a real bargain.	6.25	25.5
Soplo Rafael Cambra, Garnacha, 2015, Valencia, Spain, 13.5% From cherries through to plums with an aromatic wet-leaves finish, this is a woodland walk in a glass. One for lovers of hedgehogs and summer's end. Glorious.	6.5	27
